New Kensington Girl Is Sought

Sweetheart Is Held In Jail As Search Is Being Conducted

REPORT ELOPEMENT; GIRL DOESN'T RETURN

(International News Service)
NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Sept. 22.—Authorities were combing four states today in a search for Miss Elvina Del Grosso, 17, New Kensington, who has been reported missing since she eloped on September 6. Meanwhile her neighborhood sweetheart, James Stump, Jr., 23, was being held in the Arnold jail on a seduction charge.

Girl Fails To Return

The girl was said to have eloped with Stump to Wellsburg, W. Va., and when she failed to return her mother reported her missing. On her complaint Stump was arrested while the search was begun.

At his arraignment Stump said that he took Miss Del Grosso to the home of a friend at Dover, N. J., and when she refused to accompany him back to New Kensington, he returned alone.

Records disclosed that the couple had obtained a marriage license at Wellsburg, but no record of their marriage could be found.

Guard Sounds Alarm

"Meanwhile, Makley pointed his soap gun through the bars and Pierpont unlocked his cell. Together they backed the guards out of death row after freeing all prisoners from the death cells. But while they were doing this Guard Jones sounded an alarm.

"Makley, Pierpont and Clark smashed up a table in the corridor in front of death row. With its remnants they tried to smash their way through the big door at the end of the cell block. Makley and Pierpont pointed their 'guns' out through the bars and Makley set Guard Pfarr up in front of him as a shield.

Guards Open Fire

"The reserve squad of guards consisting of eight men, meantime, arrived outside the cell block. They opened fire.

"Guard Pfarr stepped back against the wall and the two bullets ploughed into Makley's body. Another bullet found its way into Pierpont's spine.

"I don't know how many shots were fired. They came so close together I couldn't count them," Deputy Warden Woodward said.

"The guards were firing with pistols.

"While the guards were still shooting, Guard Whitestone rushed in and one of the bullets ricocheted and hit him in the hand. Then it was all over."

Northfield, Mass., Sept. 22.—Two youths, owners of guns, were called from the homes of their prominent parents today, questioned regarding the "motive-less" shotgun slaying of Rev. Elliott Spear, headmaster of Mt. Herman preparatory school for boys, and were "entirely eliminated from the case," according to State Detective Lieutenant Albert Dasey.

Northfield is a hunting country and a majority of the men and boys have guns or rifles.

Conflicting stories told to Wayne, Pa. authorities by a 17-year-old boy arrested 15 miles from Philadelphia and involving a local and a Worcester boy were termed by district attorney as evidence of mental illness.

On Court House Hill

County Commissioner Elmer Conner is attending the Building and Loan League convention in Pittsburgh today. Mr. Conner is an officer in the Ellwood City Building and Loan.

Letters of administration in the estate of the late John E. Stephenson of Ellwood City, have been granted by Register and Recorder Hanna to Ada Stephenson.

Letters in the estate of the late Charles O. Morford of Pulaski, have been granted to Charles Wylam.

In the estate of Monroe Johnston, late of Wilmington township, letters have been granted to Willis M. Johnston.

Prothonotary R. M. Campbell has prepared papers in an appeal to the superior court in the case of Robert Ferla, a minor, by his father, Jacob Ferla, against John H. Foster, trading as the Foster Soft Drink Company. The case is an action in trespass, growing out of an automobile accident on the Perry highway near Grant City. At the trial of the case a verdict was rendered in favor of Robert Ferla for $25, and a verdict in favor of the defendant as to Jacob Ferla. Motion for a new trial was made, and upon the refusal of a new trial the case was appealed.

County commissioners are spending considerable time inspecting the highways and bridges of the county. It is planned to have the planking of all bridges in good shape before winter. The worst damage is done to bridges by the heavy trucks. A few bridges in the county have iron plates which have been found to be considerable of a protection to the plank, as it prevents them from being jarred loose by the action of the heavy trucks.

Many people profess to be shocked by violations of the moral code, but it is noticeable that when a case that promises to be a little off color is scheduled to be tried in court, there are always plenty of people who seem to enjoy the show. A case in point was that of Frank Schiraldi which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers this week. The court room was well filled, both by men and women during the trial. They craned their necks and bent forward to hear every word of the evidence. They wanted to hear something sensational, more particularly something that would supposedly offend their ideas of morality. This morbid curiosity in a case of this nature is pretty hard to explain. Individually many of the spectators at the trial, especially the women, would scarcely listen to stories told from the witness stand, but collectively a mixed audience will revel in the gutter thought.

carefully, determined that the ladder was built of lumber handled only by this firm.

On the heels of this revelation came the disclosure from Col. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the New Jersey state police, that a cast of the footprints of the man who received the $50,000 ransom from Dr. J. F. (Jasie) Condon in St. Raymond's cemetery, is in possession of authorities.

Schwarzkopf left Trenton, N. J., shortly before noon to confer with District Attorney Samuel Foley of the Bronx. Whether he took the footprint cast with him could not be learned.

The New Jersey state police chief, said, however, there is no cast of the kidnaper's footprints. It has been rumored several times police found footprints of the kidnaper near the Lindbergh home but Col. Schwarzkopf said he had no knowledge of them and denied flatly that they had been transferred to a tell-tale cast.

Flatten Out Defense

New York, Sept. 22.—Police officials today shot holes in the "defense" of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, the "black sheep" member of a German family who is held in jail here in connection with the kidnapping and murder of little Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

Another weak spot in the alibi of the calculating, tight-lipped carpenter came to light with the revelation that Hauptmann used ransom money in paying his rent eight months ago.

Hauptmann, answering questions at the police "line up" yesterday concerning the $13,750 of the Lindbergh ransom found secreted in his garage, declared the first he knew that this cache was money was three weeks ago.

Yet, it was disclosed today, Hauptmann in paying his rent last January 3 to his landlady, Mrs. Pauline Rauch, 75 years old, he handed over five $150 bills, one of which was a gold certificate and formed part of the ransom money.

This sharp discrepancy is simply one other reason why the police do not believe Hauptmann's story that not only does he know nothing of the kidnapping but that he had nothing to do with obtaining the $50,000 ransom.

Story Doesn't Hold

Hauptmann said the money found in his garage had been left in his safe keeping by a friend—One Isidor Fisch—who went off to Germany and died. The police scoff at this explanation as being almost an insult to their intelligence.

Detectives search for clues and more of the ransom money interviewed Mrs. Rauch. She lives on the first floor of the two-story house in the Bronx, whose upper floor is occupied by the Hauptmanns.

After ransacking the pantry and other parts of her home, the landlady found two of the Lindbergh ransom bills which, she said, Hauptmann had given her for rent. One of the bills had been given to her last January.

The police recalled that when Inspector John J. Sullivan interrogated Hauptmann at the police "line up" yesterday the questioning ran as follows:

Q. (Sullivan)—Where did you get all the money in your garage?
A. A friend gave me all his effects to take care of until he came back from the other side.

Q. Is he coming back?
A. No, he died in Germany.

Q. Did you know it was money?
A. I thought it was bills or anything. I never suspected it was money.

Q. When did you find out it was money?
A. Three weeks ago.

Sullivan also brought out that Hauptmann had not worked steadily since 1932 and in the meantime had spent considerable money.

The cold, common place looking Hauptmann was quartered in a cell in the Bronx county jail today, making the most of a lull in the police interrogation of him. Early this morning, District Attorney Samuel J. Foley of the Bronx, announced at the conclusion of a nine-hour examination of the prisoner that he would go before the Bronx grand jury Monday to seek an indictment against the man. Foley, however, had not yet determined on which charge he will seek the indictment.

Hauptmann is already charged with extortion in New York and with murder in New Jersey. Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey who signed extradition papers for the extradition of the prisoner said the extradition proceedings would be held in abeyance pending further investigation.

safe speed for all concerned, license numbers are taken and arrests follow," he replied.

"Do you have a section marked off?" was another question.

"No. The police follow the cars? There are two men in the cruisers and the speed is ascertained" Haven answered.

Seven Arrested Last Night
"Last night" Haven stated "seven autoists were arrested on the charge of speeding and seven others arrested for failing to obey stop signs" he declared.

"Among the seven was one autoist who not only operated at a speed fast to be safe on a downtown thoroughfare but also ran through two red lights."

"What happened?" Haven was asked.

"The man paid $16.00" the chief replied.

"How long will the campaign continue?" was another question.

"This campaign will continue until speeding and failure to obey stop signs end. Parking laws must be obeyed and reckless driving eliminated" he replied.

The list of fines for the offenses follows:
Speeding $10.00; failure to obey a stop sign, $3.00, and failure to obey the parking law $1.00.

A fine can be levied for reckless driving and it is believed that the police will soon try to stop double parking.

Three cruisers are being used in this campaign. They are occupied by two men each. The cars operate in sections assigned them by the chief.

"This industry," said Sloan, somewhat enigmatically, "has from the beginning of the NRA been foremost in support of his (Mr. Roosevelt's) efforts for betterment of working conditions in economic recovery. A majority of our employees are not at work. I am recommending that closed mills reopen as soon as possible."

M. C. CIRCLE HAS EVENING TEA PARTY

The assembly room of the Third United Presbyterian church presented all the aspects of a flower garden Thursday evening when the members of the Margaret Copeland Circle entertained about 150 members and friends at an elaborately appointed tea party.

As the guests sat about the 30 small tables they were entertained with an amusing program which included two baritone numbers by David Lewis; a group of readings by Elizabeth Mulholland; a novelty sketch by Mary Lou Brunton and "Middle Jones and musical numbers by the DiCarbo brothers.

Everett McClaren entertained with some clever original verses; Virginia Roberts, Ruth Wilkison and Cecelia Hasalik sang a group of songs and the program closes with a sketch, "The Runaways" given by Mrs. Lucy Pettit, Mrs. Marie Roof and George Roof.

Mrs. M. R. Bates, president of the society, made a gracious closing speech, after which refreshments were served.

GRAMODA KENSINGTON TUREEN LUNCHEON

The late summer furnished delightful weather for social gatherings and the flower gardens have been most lavish in their production of beautiful blooms for hostesses to use in beautifying their homes and Friday Mrs. Ernest Smith, Winter avenue, used the vivid colorings of the flowers as a background for her dainty table appointments when she entertained the members of the Gramoda Kensington at a 1 o'clock tureen luncheon.

The afternoon hours were most informal, the women talking over their summer vacations.

Plans were promulgated for a dinner October 11, at which time their husbands will be guests.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MRS. J. O'LOUGHLIN

Yesterday was Mrs. Joseph O'Loughlin's birthday, and to fittingly celebrate the event, about twenty-five relatives, neighbors and friends gathered at her home on West Washington street for an evening's pleasure.

After showering the guest of honor with many lovely presents, the company had a delightfully informal time playing cards.

Luncheon was served by Dorothy O'Loughlin and her aides, Mary Elizabeth Joyce and Dorothy Davis.

J. O. S. Club Meeting

Mrs. Helen Emerick, Croton avenue, had as her special guest Friday evening at the meeting of the J. O. S. club, Miss Henrietta Emerick.

Three tables of 500 held their attention, Mrs. Irene Hill, Mrs. Helen Hildebrand and Miss Catherine McCreaty winning the prizes for honors. Music, chat and other pastimes also whiled away the hours.

Appointments of green and white prevailed in the menu later served by the hostess.

On Friday, October 5, Mrs. Alice Young will entertain at the home of Irene McClelland on Dewey avenue.

Vets Auxiliary

Members of the ladies auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held their regular semi-monthly business meeting Thursday night in the Legion Home with President Eda Keenan presiding.

The auxiliary will hold a card party in the Legion Home Wednesday evening, September 26, with Mrs. Louise Evans as chairlady.

The next regular meeting will be held on Thursday evening, October 4, at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

G. W. C. Club

Members of the G. W. C. club will not meet on Thursday of the coming week as previously planned. The occasion has been postponed for two weeks, with Mrs. Robert Russell, Chestnut street, hostess.

Pageant Club

The Pageant Club of W. B. A. 98 will have a social time in the K. of P. Hall, East street, Monday evening with cards and bingo as the feature.

This will mark the last of a series of parties given by the club.

YOUNG MARRIED PEOPLE HAVE DINNER-MEETING

Worth knowing about is a dinner-meeting held Friday evening in the Highland U. P. church by the Linde Young Married People's class.

The church basement was a lovely setting for the affair, being decorated with a profusion of fall flowers. Bright colored bouquets and yellow and white candles in crystal holders were on the long tables around which covers were arranged for 35. Serving on the committee in charge were Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs. James McGoun and Mrs. John Brinton. They were assisted by Mrs. C. G. Lindner.

After dinner, there was a short business session, followed by an informal good time.

Tip Top Club

The members of the Tip Top club met Friday evening, with Mrs. Irene Minner, 10 Sankey street, as the hostess.

An election of officers featured the session with Earl Hammond named president; Marian Pallen, secretary; Mrs. Irene Minner, vice president; William Hooper, treasurer and George Stamp, press correspondent.

The entertainment committee appointed includes Bryan Minner, Sam Fray, Dorothy Dadds and William Weinstein.

The meeting was followed by a delightful entertainment and lunch.

Plans were made to attend the football game at Friday evening and then go to the Minner home for a meeting and entertainment.

Honor James Hannon

Complimenting James Hannon, of the Mahoning road, who will be departing soon to take up studies at Tri-State College, Angola, Indiana, a crowd of young friends gathered surprise fashion at his home Wednesday evening.

The hours were spent in an interesting way with five tables of cards in play. Prizes were awarded to Miss Helen Fulkerson and James Vonderaar.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. R. P. Hannon, mother of the honored guest.

In memory of the occasion, young Mr. Hannon was presented with a gift from the assemblage.

G. A. R. Ladies

The Ladies of the G. A. R. have accepted an invitation to attend a dinner of the Major Woodworth Circle at Youngstown, Ohio, Tuesday, September 25.

Plans were made for a social evening for the members and friends Thursday, September 27, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Tripp, 1708 Highland avenue.

Sarah Sherbine Hostess

Delightfully informal was the birthday party of Sarah Sherbine, Wilmington avenue, when she entertained 12 girls in her home Friday evening in celebration of her 13th birthday.

Games of an amusing nature were played with Eleanor Van Buren and Helen Skelton winning prizes.

Later the girls were invited to the dining room, where Mrs. Sherbine served a delicious lunch, the table being centered with a large birthday cake and late summer flowers.

Sarah was presented with many lovely gifts.

POEM BY A MAN NAMED OPPENHEIM

I don't know much about Oppenheim. Nearly all that I know about him is that he is a poet and that he wrote one poem that I like to read
...It means much to me, it may mean as much to others.... Whenever I open a certain anthology I find myself turning to page 2997
and reading this poem that James Oppenheim wrote.... I think he had fun writing it and I think that all good poems were fun for those who wrote them.... And this poem, which Oppenheim called "Immoral" has fun in it as well as being fun for the man who wrote it.
"I keep walking around myself,
For by all the ethical rules of life, I ought to be solemn and sad,
But, look you, I am bursting with joy."

"I scold myself:
I say: Boy, your work has gone to pot:
You have scarcely enough money to
last out the week:
And think of your responsibilities!
Whereup, my heart bubbles over,
I puff on my pipe, and think how solemnly the world goes by my window.
And how childish people are, wrin-kling their foreheads over groceries and rent."

"For here jets life fresh and stinging in the vivid air:
The winds laugh to the jovial Earth
The day is keen with Autumn's fine flavor of having done the year's work:
Earth in her festival, calls her children to the crimson revels.
The trees are a drunken riot; the sunshine is dazzling...."

"Yes, I ought, I suppose to be sa-dened and tragic:
But joy drops from me like ripe
apples."

James Oppenheim, you knew yourself well, O most immoral man!
Didn't you know that life is a quince, a bitter fruit, a wrinkled apple, didn't you know that the wise man today is said and apprehensive, didn't you know that the poets of the twentieth century have taken Misery for their muse? Didn't you know you were a most deplorable, most reprehensible, most dangerous fellow to be around?... You sat in your window and puffed on your pipe and joy dropped from you like red apples—when you might have been improving your shingling hours with a distillation of pessimism—and James Oppenheim, outrageous fellow, I wish I'd known you well enough to shake you by the hand!

RELAXATION IS NECESSARY TO WELL BEING

You may be one of those who think that the quiet, sedate person does not get much enjoyment out of life.
You want something doing all the time.
You want noise, excitement,
laughter and action.
You have a few waking moments
in which you are not in motion.
You have few calm, restful periods in your life.
You are under tension a greater part of your time.
Your mental and physical systems
get little relaxation.
Yet you need relaxation as a rebuilding process.
It is requisite of good performance in whatever is undertaken.
The well poised, seemingly emotionless person does not need your pity or your sympathy.
He gets more out of life than you.
He is always in receptive mood,
can allow himself to think and does not need the excitement you crave to create the thing that makes for his happiness.
He is not pressing himself from morning until night.
He becomes less fatigued and he is happier than you are.
In fact, he gets many a chuckle
at your expense.

RETURN

When I get home I shall sit me down
In my old red chair in the ingle nook
And say: "It is good to be back in town.
In this peaceful spot with a pipe
and book."

All summer long we have stayed away
Where the air is sweet with the scent of pine
And the white caps dance on Saginaw Bay.
Now I want to get back to that room of mine.

Oh, we've had a glorious time indeed,
But the summer is done and the air turns cold
And I am eager once more to read
A paper before it is two days old.

When I get home I shall sit me down
And say to her: "Well the summer's flown,
But isn't it good to be back in town,
Where a friend can call on the telephone?"

a happy thought and said to him:

"No."
"Well, if you will permit me I will experiment with you and see whether you bleed or not."
The patient gave his consent and the doctor whipped out his scalpel and drew a little blood.
"There," he said, "you see that you bleed; that proves that you're not dead."
"Not at all," the patient insistently replied, "that only proves that dead men can bleed."

Taxes—Sword of Damocles
Banks Worry Over U. S. Bond Drop
Picket Roundup and Fascism

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 22.
—This happens to be written in Atlantic City, where folk gossip about the news.
Here's some chatter, fresh from the Boardwalk.

TAXES
The majority of people who frequent Atlantic City pay taxes.
Says one businessman:
"Taxes is the Sword of Damocles hanging over business. Virtually all future earnings will be pre-empted.
"Worse, the treasury department objects to sums charged off for depreciation in the past, and an effort will be made to collect on such
'past taxes'."

U. S. BONDS
A financial writer remarks:
"The most noise is made over the NRA, but the 'worst' department of the government is the treasury. It seems to be in the hands of amateurs—or inflationists.
"Soon the administration will be charging Wall Street with trying to beat down the prices of government securities, with trying to discredit
the administration.
"But nobody can do it any more destructively than the administration itself—through its money schemes.
"The drop in the price of government securities is serious. Small banks find their legal reserves depleted, and hasten to translate the securities into cash prior to any further drop.
"Cash, mere cash, however, earns nothing."

THE NRA
A woman shopkeeper from the interior of the United States says:
"If the NRA were equally enforced, some money might be made.
"As it is, who observes it?
"If wages were ordered up in certain instances, others suffered—usually the best persons.
"And, to my own knowledge, unorganized help is working longer hours than ever. Such persons do not dare to complain—too much unemployed help is available.
"My business would be better if there were more of NRA and fewer violations."

CO-OPERATIVES
A student of economics surmises:
"The United States will have to come to co-operatives—at least such is my belief.
"We have vast surpluses. We have millions who need those surpluses. We can start the ball rolling again only by concentrated and communal effort.
"People in business are opposed to co-operatives as something depriving them of profits and property. I say, rather, co-operatives would restore the taste, whet the appetite.

"How much profit business is there now, anyway?
"Perhaps our factories would turn wheels if co-operatives would stimulate a demand.
"But I haven't much hope for calm, sane solution of our economic troubles. Interested persons stir up emotions that destroy all that leads to sound development.
"In San Francisco, vigilantes, out for Communists, wrecked a co-operative as thoroughly as alleged radical quarters."

RAILROADS
Atlantic City opens a new railroad station—which reminds us that railroads still are a vital factor in anybody's life.
Fresh money will be needed for railroads quickly. There is slight chance of the government taking them over. Their capitalization and debts are more than they are worth —and the government hasn't the money to pay as much as that.

NYE
Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota looms as the Republican nominee for the presidency.
Since Old Guard New York state
Republicans ditched James W.
Wadsworth as a possible governmental candidate in favor of Robert Moses, a "pink" progressive, the stock of Old Guardmen has fallen.
It now is believed in Old Guard circles that victory is possible only by getting behind a progressive, yet
"safe" man.

There is, however, trouble within the Republican ranks. State Chairman W. Kingsland Macy in New York demands that Judge Samuel Seabury be the Republican governmental nominee. The Old Guardsmen, however, rank Judge Seabury with Franklin D. Roosevelt and Norman Thomas.

Senator Nye is hardly better in Old Guard eyes—but he, at least,
"plays ball" with the Republican Old Guard. And his munitions investigation has nothing to do with economics or the social order.

SECRETS
The munitions investigation has developed one interesting factor:
The United States government readily divulges its secrets to private manufacturers, who just as readily sell the products of those secrets to any foreign nation.
In every war, soldiers are killed by weapons made in their own countries and sold abroad to enrich munitions makers.

The American munitions manufacturers have gone one step further: They have hired the military men in charge of those secrets—hired them away from the government the men had sworn to protect.

TODAY Is The Day

By CLARK KINNAIRD Copyright 1934 Central Press

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

The World War Day-By-Day—
Sept. 22, 1914—It was the 64th birthday of Britain's national military hero, Lord Herbert Kitchener, who so detested women that he wouldn't have a married man on his personal staff. He was in no mood to celebrate, nor was the nation, for Kitchener, as war minister had done nothing yet except to ask for more men to pour in a bloody stream upon the fields of France.

Only young men were being taken for the armies, but only old men were leading them. French, the field commander of the B. E. F., was 61. Joffre was 62; Pau, second in command of French, was 66; Castelnaud, third in command, was the same; Gallieni, defender of Paris, was 70; Molke was 66. Kluck 67.
Von der Goltz 71, Hindenburg 67.

It was a dreadful day for Britain upon the sea. The most spectacular instance of the fighting powers of the submarine was furnished by the U-29 when it attacked and destroyed in turn the British 12,000-ton
cruisers Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue (names commemorating three famous British victories).

They were patrolling the coast of Holland, when they had been raging and the cruisers were not protected by the usual screen of destroyers.
The Aboukir was struck first, at 6:25 a. m. The Hogue took up position ahead of its stricken companion, the Cressy closed in behind, and boats were put out to pick up survivors. When cutters full of the Aboukir's men were returning to the Cressy, the Hogue was struck.

A periscope was spotted from the Cressy, fire was opened by gun crews and full speed ahead was ordered with the intention of running down the sub. Five minutes later men aboard the Cressy saw a fatal torpedo streaking toward their ship. It was hit amidships.

Of the total crews of 1,459, less than half were saved.
Capt. Lieut. Otto Weddigen and the other 22 members of the crew of the U-9 immediately became German heroes.

History Up-To-Date—Sept. 22, 1736—Maj. John Bernhardt died in Newgate prison, England, at the age of 82 after a confinement of 40 years without a trial!

He was arrested in a roundup of conspirators against King William III. Because of the crown's lack of evidence against him, he was not brought to trial when eight others were found guilty and condemned to be hanged. But William wouldn't hear of freeing anybody even suspected of wanting to kill him, and in prison Bernhardt remained until he became the Forgotten Man.

When he had been there 31 years,
an effort was made to free him on a writ of habeas corpus. The plea was rejected on the ground there was no
proof of his commitment to prison!
There wasn't!

But Bernhardt married and became the father of 12 children while in Newgate.

Sept. 22, 1776—Captain Nathan Hale, 21, regretted that he had but one life to give for his country, as he was executed in New York by the British as a spy. He was a spy.

Sept. 22, 1827—The date upon which Joseph Smith, then aged 22, said the angel Moroni appeared before him in what is now Wayne county, New York, and gave him the engraved plates from which he transcribed the Book of Mormon,
Bible, the Church of the Latter
Day Saints, which he established three years later.

AND THE

JUST RAISINS
As evidence of the increasing demand for California products in the East and Middle West, 2,000,000 pounds of raisins were shipped by special train from Fresno, in the San Joaquin Valley, in central California, by the Sun-Maid Company, co-operative growers' association, for distribution to various eastern markets.
The train was routed over Southern Pacific Rock Island, Fort Smith and Western and other eastern roads and is the largest single shipment of California raisins to be sent East since 1922. It was said by representatives of the growers.
The shipment was valued at more than $100,000.

Those we do not raise ourselves we insist must come to us garden fresh and are then kept in a specially designed refrigeration plant, thus guaranteeing to you garden fresh blooms for your party, or whatever function you are having.

Plan Farewell For Rev. Joshua

Croton Pastor To Preach
Final Sermons Sunday—
Reception Monday

REV. C. S. JOSHUA

It is with a feeling of the deepest regret that the congregation of the Croton Methodist Episcopal church and the entire community sees the removal of the Rev. C. S. Joshua to Silver Creek, N. Y.

He has been pastor of the Croton church the past five years and not only did he act as spiritual advisor to the members of his congregation but he was a sincere friend to each and every one of his flock as well as to a host of people in New Castle.

Not only did the Rev. Joshua give unstintingly and sacrificially of his time to the pastoral duties of his church, but he interested himself in the religious and civic affairs of the community, being a leader in many projects that were beneficial to the city.

New Castle will be the loser when he leaves the community, but Silver Creek will gain by his addition to that city, as he will no doubt interest himself there in his church and in the community's welfare.

He has been a faithful worker for his church, not only in time of prosperity, but through adversities as well. For the past year he headed the New Castle Ministerial Association.

The congregation and friends will express its farewell messages at a public reception in the Croton church Monday evening, and the pastor will say his farewells at the Sunday services. In the morning he will address the congregation using as his sermon subject "The Victorious Church" and at the evening service he will occupy the pulpit for the last time as pastor and will have as his theme "Hats off to the Past and Coats Off to the Future."

Not only will the church and community miss the pastor, but also his good wife, the Rev. Margaret Joshua who has many times filled the pulpit of the Croton church as well as other churches in the city, and has thrilled many audiences of a civic gathering with her brilliant oratory. The younger group of the church will miss greatly the two daughters of the pastor, Miss Ruth and Betty, who have been most active and popular in the work of the young people.

Musical Numbers Feature Service

The Evening Service In Epworth Methodist Church Will Feature Anthems

Dr. J. A. Galbraith, who will begin another year's pastorate at Epworth Methodist church, announces that the official board of the church appreciates greatly the excellent reports of the conference sessions recently held in Epworth church.

Many commendations have been heard and the articles appearing in The News were the best in many years.

Sunday evening the church choir will sing several special numbers, featuring two anthems by the entire choir, two numbers by the mixed quartet, a duet, a solo and an organ number by Mrs. Anna Moore Pyle.

GIRL'S CONDITION CRITICAL
Attendees of the New Castle hospital this morning described the condition of Donna Jean Holsinger, aged 4, of 742 East Washington street, as critical.

The child was burned Thursday afternoon when her dress ignited while she was playing with matches. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holsinger.

Ministers To Have Session

The New Castle Ministerial Association will have its bi-weekly session Monday morning at 10:30 in the First Presbyterian church, with the new president, Dr. G. S. Bennett, in the chair.

The retiring president, the Rev. Clifford S. Joshua, who leaves for Silver Creek, N. Y., Tuesday, will make his farewell address to his co-workers of the past five years.

Sukkoth Feast To Be Celebrated

Jewry Will Observe The Last
Of The Fall Holy Days At Appropriate Ceremonies

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues will usher in the Sukkoth ("Feast of Tabernacles") Festival with a special service on Sunday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock Rabbi Avery Jonah Grossfield officiating. An elaborate musical program, featuring the traditional melodies of this Festival, has been arranged. The Lulov and Erog will be chanted in the Sukkah which has been erected in the vestry rooms. The topic of the sermon will be "Harvest Joys."

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit during these Sukkoth services have been offered by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gonic, in grateful appreciation for the harvest of joy that their little son Jacob has brought to their home during the first few months of his life.

After the services, the members and friends will enjoy the first social hour of the season, which will take place in the vestry rooms: Kiddush will be chanted and the Shema prayer will be recited in the vestry room in line with the Harvest festival.

The Feast of Tabernacles Or Sukkoth

The Jewish festival of Sukkoth or Feast of Tabernacles will be celebrated this year from Sunday night September 23rd at sundown, to Monday night, October 1st, at the same time. This festival lasts eight days, and is celebrated by all Jews throughout the world.

It was celebrated by the Jews when they lived in Palestine and were an agricultural people. It marked the close of the harvest and the beginning of the plowing and the rainy season. It was a festival of rejoicing and merry-making when the servant was equal to the master and all united in praising and thanking God for His bountiful gifts.

The Bible commanded that on this festival all the people should make a pilgrimage to the Temple at Jerusalem, and there, after offering their sacrifices, should dwell in booths or tabernacles, temporarily erected of wood and beautifully decorated with fruits and flowers to remind them both of the harvest season and how their ancestors had dwelt in booths in the wilderness. Many Jews still observe the latter custom today. In some synagogues a modernized form of the harvest festival is celebrated.

Some also celebrate a supplementary festival on the ninth day, called Rejoicing of the Law, because the annual cycle of the reading of the law has been completed and on that day the sacred scrolls of the Law of Moses are rolled back to the beginning of Genesis and the Law is begun to be read anew. In many synagogues the scrolls are taken from the Holy Ark in which they are kept and carried about in solemn procession.

Dr. G. S. Bennett Will Be Speaker In Buffalo Church

Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, who is recognized extensively as a most profound scholar of the Bible, will speak next week in the Central Christian church of Buffalo, N. Y., which is one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The pastor of the Buffalo church was a student in the Bethany seminary when Dr. Bennett was a Bible instructor there and he has asked Dr. Bennett to be the speaker at a series of meetings to be held next week.

From Monday to Friday, inclusive, Dr. Bennett will address different groups at dinner meetings and then at 8 o'clock each evening he will address large audiences in the church auditorium.

Dr. Bennett will occupy his own pulpit Sunday at the morning service.

Harvest Festival At Second Church

Dr. C. K. McGeorge, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church, announces a Harvest Festival for Sunday evening at 7:45 under the auspices of the board of Deacons, with George Warner presiding.

The church will be elaborately decorated with fruits of the field and garden, with a beautiful display of flowers.

A special musical program by the choir and guests singers will feature the service.

Gifts for the needy, consisting of fruit, vegetables and groceries will be heaped upon long tables before the pulpit.

Highland Workers Will Meet Monday

The Sabbath School Association of the Highland United Presbyterian church, which includes the teachers and officers of the Bible school, will meet Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Edith Deuel and Miss Bertha Dadds, 216 East Wallace avenue, at 8 o'clock.

The association will plan the fall and winter work for which members will be addressed by Mrs. Lillie Braham of New Wilmington, who has recently returned from Cairo, Egypt, where she spent three years as a teacher in the American College for Girls.

New Pastor Of Croton Church

Rev. Charles H. Hauger To Take Up Duties Here During Coming Week

REV. C. H. HAUGER

In Rev. Charles H. Hauger, appointed to the pastorate of the Croton Methodist Episcopal church, New Castle is getting a minister who is a product of the neighboring state of Ohio. He was born near Mt. Vernon, O., and entered the ministry as the result of aiding the man who later became his father-in-law.

Rev. Hauger was a student in the Normal school of Danville, Ohio, and was engaged to the daughter of a Methodist minister. On a certain Sunday the minister was taken ill and young Hauger was asked to occupy the pulpit. He did so and impressed the congregation with his ability to such an extent that he was asked to preach several times after.

After attending Ohio Wesleyan University and getting his M. A. Degree he attended Drew Theological Seminary of Madison, N. J., and the Theological Seminary of Boston, Mass. Prior to studying for the ministry he was principal of the village school at Howard, O., and assistant principal of the high school in Gambier, O.

During his college life he succeeded in supporting his wife and paying for his education by such jobs as mowing lawns, tending furnaces and selling steam cookers. While he was studying in Boston he received an appointment in a church at Groveland, a suburb of Haverhill, Mass. Later he was assistant pastor of the First Methodist church of Cleveland, O., working with the noted Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell.

Scientists Have Series Of Lessons

A series of special lessons are being featured by the Church of Christ, Scientist, for several Sundays and at 11 a. m. Sunday the subject will be "Matter." The Golden Text is: "Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob."

Among Bible citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon is the following: "So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you" (Romans 8:8, 9).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus reasoned on this subject practically, and controlled sickness, sin, and death on the basis of his spirituality. Understanding the nothingness of material things, he spoke of flesh and Spirit as the two opposites,—as error and Truth, not contributing in any way to each other's happiness and existence. Jesus knew, 'It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing.'"

SUNDAY

The World War Day-By-Day—Sept. 23, 1914—German troops made a sudden and successful attack on the barrier forts south of Verdun, and took St. Mihiel. Thus they were able to cut the Commercy-Verdun railroad. Verdun was not enveloped, but it was left practically without rail communication with the rest of France, a circumstance that was to contribute gravely to its danger during a later phase of the war.

Coincidentally, the French did some rail-cutting, too. Joffre, now assuming that he couldn't break the entrenched German lines, began to send troops around the enemy right, which does not extend west of the Oise. These troops came east from Amiens and aimed at St. Quentin and the whole network of captured railroads upon which the German armies were dependent for their supplies.

The French were so confident of the success of this thrust that the French minister of war (Millerand) publicly forecast the immediate retirement of the Germans from France, and rumors flew around Paris and London that Von Kluck had surrendered!

However, London newspapers had some real news to report on this date: British planes dropped bombs on the Zeppelin sheds at Düsseldorf in the first aid raid to Germany.

History Up-To-Date—Sept. 23, 1780—A 29-year-old horseman was stopped by three militiamen, John Paulding, Isaac Van Wort and David Williams, near Tarrytown, N. Y. He bore a pass from Brig. Gen. Benedict Arnold identifying him as one Anderson. Had he shown the pass he would have been allowed to proceed, and history would have been different.

One of the militiamen wore a British soldier's salvaged red coat, and the horseman made the mistake of announcing himself a British officer. He was arrested, but the militiamen did not learn the importance of their capture until after he had been permitted to send a letter to Arnold.

Arnold was at breakfast at Washington's headquarters when the letter arrived. He read it with composure, asked to be excused, bade his wife a farewell, dashed to the Hudson on a horse and fled to a British sloop-of-war. By the time he reached it, officers at Tarrytown had learned that their young captive was Maj. John Andre, adjutant-general of the British army in North Carolina, and that he carried in his shoe papers proving that Arnold had agreed to sell the capitulation of the fortress of West Point for $50,000 and a commission in the British army.

ELLWOOD PUTS UP BRILLIANT GAME

Give Red And Black Real Scare As Bridenbaughmen Win 7-0 Friday Night

FIGHT AND OFFENSE OF TUBERS SURPRISE

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—There is nothing but praise today for Coaches "Gandy" Benedict and Mike Ferrare and their 11 "iron men" who journeyed to New Castle last night and gave them the scare of their lives, as the Bridenbaughmen won 7-0 under the flood lights of Taggart stadium.

But the victory was bare, as the supposedly inferior Ellwoodians outplayed and outscored the 1933 AA champs. But for a play described by Ellwoodians as a "fuke" the game would have been a scoreless battle. In the third quarter from Ellwood's 21-yard line, Fleming started out, from all appearances what was plainly an off tackle play. "Red" Rocco and Bettini, Ellwood's right tackle and end respectively, came in and gummed up the play by causing a pile-up. All of a sudden Fleming streaked out from the pile and headed diagonally for the sidelines. There was little that could be done. The end and tackle were in the pile-up and the Ellwood backfield was naturally drawn in for the apparent off tackle play. Fleming had no difficulty in outrunning Robuck and Young, who were out of position in the backfield. Incidentally this was the first time several yards to go for a first down for New Castle. Fleming, of course, must be commended for his presence of mind to do as he did, when there was no hole.

The game went down in local history as a moral victory for the Benedictmen. They were outwitted considerably by the Red and Black, but considering the way the locals were breaking through and nailing the runners in their tracks, and staying off two scoring threats, one would think the teams were evenly matched. What the Benedictmen lacked in speed and weight, they made up in speed, stamina and sheer gameness. The 11 men in the starting lineup played the entire game and not once asking for a time out. Local followers and old timers marveled at the deadly, low and hard tackling of the Ellwood team, which caused the fans as well as the opponents to wince. Except in spots New Castle's running attack was stopped. Their passing game was a complete standstill, the local backs batted down or else intercepted all of New Castle's flings.

Deceptive Offense.

The first downs were at 6 all. Living up to predictions the Blue and White unleashed an offensive that gladdened the hearts of their followers and drew admiration from New Castle sports fans. It was truly fast and deceptive. On several occasions the Red and Black tackled the wrong person as the man with the ball would streak up the field for a nice gain. Halfback Bill Young and Fullback Tony Scopellito both got away on runs in the initial stanza that were almost scores. Ellwood got as far as the five-yard line in this period at which time their passes were incomplete or batted down. Bognoski also got in some outstanding runs but was especially outstanding in his punting, in which department he decidedly bested his New Castle opponent. Alex Robuck, diminutive Ellwood quarterback, drew admiration from the fans for his return of punts and selection of plays in handling the team. It was unfortunate last night that Bill Young was off in his passing accuracy. On several occasions the man for whom the pass was intended was open, but the fling was out of reach. Otherwise the result might have been different.

Line Is Good.

It would be difficult to pick an outstanding performer in the line. The whole seven men played like true Spartans and fought every inch of the way. Jeannette and Bettini, the ends, covered up on punts in a splendid manner and were one of the reasons why New Castle's famous wide reverse end run would not function. Marcus and Rocco were by no means overshadowed by the highly touted Shellig brothers at tackle. The play of Captain Jack Steckman and Kaufman at the guards and Mike Kraynak at center left little to be desired. Ellwood completely dominated the game in the first and final stanzas. In the latter New Castle was practically on the defense throughout. New Castle had an edge in the second and except for the touchdown, were outplayed in the third. The Benedictmen, after the strenuous game, will rest over the weekend. On Monday they begin a serious training for the invasion of Butler high school here next Saturday. The Blue and White with their showing against the Bridenbaugh machine, as an incentive, will be a hard team to beat from now on. An account of the game appears on the sports page of this issue.

Spaghetti Supper At Wurtemburg

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—As a result of an attendance contest held recently between members of the Willing Workers and Young Men's Bible classes of the Wurtemburg U. P. church, the men, who were the losers, tendered the victorious ones a spaghetti supper last evening in the church rooms.

The men prepared and served quantities of the delicious food "with all the accompaniments." The long table, at which covers were arranged for 24, was prettily decorated with clusters of garden flowers.

The remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly in an informal manner with music and chat as the principal pastimes. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, a bride and groom of late August, were presented with a fine gift in behalf of the Young Men's class.

Choir Surprises Dorothy Bissel

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Dorothy Bissel was delightfully surprised last evening when she called at the home of Miss Dorothy and Chancy Boots of Pleasant Hill to find members of the Wurtemburg Methodist choir gathered there. The affair was a surprise party in her honor as she is leaving soon to take up Bible work in Pittsburgh.

The affair was a merry one with a well-arranged program of games and contests holding the attention of everyone throughout the evening. An added feature was the serving of a dainty repast by the hosts.

The guest of honor was again surprised when she was presented with a collection of fine gifts in appreciation of her co-operation and support of the organization.

Y. P. Class At Hazen Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—With pleasing hospitality Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hazen opened their home at Knox last evening to members of the Young People's class of the Providence Baptist church of North Sewickley who gathered for the regular meeting with ten members participating.

The devotional and business portions of the evening were conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hazen.

Bilbo From Mississippi.
How Two Were Killed.
Men Of Asia, Beware!
Richest Charity Racket.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

NO DULL HOURS ahead in Washington, after the Senate meets, for Theodore G. Bilbo is the new Senator from Mississippi.

A former Sunday school evangelist, of Baptist faith, Mr. Bilbo is careful about his "language," nevertheless he feels bound to tell you that, in Washington, he will:

"Make as much noise for the common people as Huey P. Long, and raise the same king of hell as President Roosevelt."

THE TWENTY-SEVEN point platform that carried Mr. Bilbo to triumph to the Senate, includes "redistribution of the nation's wealth." No trouble distributing it, says the new Senator. He will give the soldier boys their bonus, demand reasonable inflation, making dollars reasonably cheap, loosening the grip of the money power; then, old age insurance, unemployment insurance and heavy taxes, he thinks will distribute the nation's wealth admirably.

SUCH A MAN, if Mississippi got tired of him, could be elected almost anywhere now, except on the corner of Broad and Wall streets. Says the new gentleman from Mississippi:

"Bilbo, Long and Roosevelt, that isn't a bad line-up, now is it?" We all agree on those things. The President may ask:

"Since when are we, WE?"

When a follower wires him: "Praise the Lord, you have scourged the money changers from the temple."

Mr. Bilbo, very religious, wires back:

"Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!"

Mr. Bilbo, a dry, is against the brain trust, thinks every Mississippi farmer should be allowed to plant all the cotton he wants to plant, and is "a hundred per cent with President Roosevelt and the New Deal."

Somewhere in his platform you should find what you want.

WILLIAM GALLO was fatally shot and his associate, Frank Boccia, died dramatically in New York's latest gangster killing. Gallo, dumped out of a speeding automobile, in Brooklyn, lived to reach the hospital, with bullets in head and abdomen. He told detectives:

"Never mind who shot me. My pals will attend to it. He cannot live."

FRANK BOCCIA was in the Crisotolo gambling club with numerous others when two killers entered, guns in hand, issuing the usual command. The automobile that dumped out Gallo had brought them to the club, police said.

Boccia's uncle, Benny, manager of the "club," seeing the cold-faced murderers and their guns, said "take everything," meaning take the gambling "bank roll."

One gunman said: "No hold up, gentlemen, all we want is this rat."

Turning his gun toward Boccia, the latter, white-faced, cringing against the wall, drew his rosary from his pocket, and began to pray.

"THAT'S RIGHT," said the killer spokesman, "you need to pray."

It is etiquette, in such killings, to give the doomed "rat" time to pray, but Boccia was too slow. Six bullets cut short his prayer. He was praying as he died. Hamlet would not kill his hated stepfather, while the latter prayed.

The killings averted two earlier killings. There will be two more to avenge these latest two, then two more. Providence works mysteriously. It is all part of a gamblers' war, Manhattan gangsters invading Brooklyn territory.

NEXT YEAR, dearly beloved, and no fooling, your government will have an elaborate "fleet war game" in the Northern Pacific in preparation for the defense of Alaska against invasion. "Don't laugh, you might make some old admiral cry."

The idea is that little brown men or big yellow men from Asia would sail right up to Alaska's shores, where the seal and sea lion disport themselves "with piteous bark," shoot big cannon at something, then march down capture New York, or even Washington.

DOES EVEN the oldest admiral, or closest friend of battleship builders, believe that any attack on the Pacific Coast would come otherwise than through the air? Does the greatest fool in our system of "national defense," so-called, imagine that floating ships could do anything to stop fighting planes, 30,000 feet up.

Some day this country may pay a heavy price for the stupidity of its government in matters of defense.

Why, in the opinion of the Washington government, is Britain hastily doubling her fighting airfleet?

NEW YORK officials, planning to encourage public gambling by establishing a lottery, seem worried politically since learning what public decency, religious bodies, especially, think of their plan.

It is revealed that to collect $12,000,000 from the gambling public it would be necessary to sell 11,000,000 tickets at $2.50 each, "to provide commissions for ticket sellers." This would mean a fifteen million, five hundred thousand dollar rake-off for politicians and their friends, and twelve million for the "needy," if they got it.

That is even worse than the average "charity racket," which is usually bad enough.

MORE ABOUT the burning of the Morro Castle and many passengers that "went down to the sea" in a boat that they supposed was inspected for safety by the United States government.

The "able seaman" who could have shut off the flame and saved lives and the ship swears that he was never told about any fire doors; "wouldn't know one if I saw it," said he.

THE SHIP carried gas masks that might have enabled the brave sailor to save passengers in spite of smoke, had not those sailors, some officers included, hurried to the lifeboats and left the passengers to burn.

Q—Was any attempt made to use the gas mask?

A—No.

Q—Did any one know how to use it?

A—No.

Responsibility for those deaths is with the United States government, supposed to inspect shipping.

FEDERAL JUDGE CHESNUT, in Maryland, says the government moratorium on farm mortgages is "confiscatory and therefore unconstitutional," because it takes away the citizen's protection as creditor, and doubles the protection given the farmer, as debtor.

Precisely, but that is the New Deal idea, rewriting an old statement thus:

"To him that hath not shall be given, and from him that hath shall be taken away, even that which he hath."

The government says to the creditor whose bond calls for gold, you may not have any gold, and it adds, by the way, if you have any gold hand it over, because I mean to double its value and I want the profit for myself. Surely, a little moratorium confiscation will not worry that sort of government.

NEW CASTLE HIGH DEFEATS ELLWOOD CITY HIGH 7 TO 0

Ellwood Surprises New Castle, Fleming Scores Lone Marker

Fleming Dashes 21 Yards In Third Period For Only Touchdown Of Game

Ellwood City Sends Strong Eleven Here—Crowd Of Over 5,000 At Game

New Castle high school "Red Hurricane" football team ran into a tartar last night in the fighting Ellwood City high school team brought here by Coach "Gandy" Benedict. New Castle won by the slimmest of margins, 7 to 0, in a game that over 5,000 fans witnessed at Taggart stadium under the floodlights. Charles "Chuck" Fleming provided the only touchdown of the game early in the third period on a 21-yard dash around left end.

Press-agented beforehand as an aerial battle, it proved to be nothing short of just that. Nineteen forward passes "flew through the air with the greatest of ease" during the battle. Of this number only four of them were caught. Ellwood City completed four out of 11 aerial thrusts and New Castle tried eight without any success whatsoever. One pass was allowed by the referee when he thought that Ellwood City had roughed the receiver.

Teams About Even
In the matter of first downs the score was even, with six being registered on each side. It was just that kind of a game. Both teams were in their fighting hard, and any ground that was gained was justly earned. New Castle was forced to punt six times and Ellwood City used eight punts. It was a kicking duel, with Bognosky of Ellwood City and Dal Mumford of New Castle staging another "tie" when it came to booting the ball.

Ellwood City presented an "iron man" team here last night. Not once during the game did Coach Benedict send in a replacement. Coach Bridenbaugh used but two reserves.

Ellwood Threatens
The blue and white clad visitors threw a scare into New Castle in the very first period when Ellwood City recovered a fumble of a punt by Mumford on the New Castle 19-yard line. A pass, Robuck to Jeannette, was good for a short gain and three more passes failed for Ellwood, with the Benedictmen surrendering the ball on the 8-yard line on downs. New Castle had the Ellwood men covered on the forward passes within the shadow of the New Castle goal line.

Young of Ellwood City ripped off a nice gain of 14 yards in the middle of the first period and made 14 yards through the line for a first down, but New Castle stopped the Ellwood City rally on the New Castle 30-yard line. New Castle failed to gain and Mumford kicked to Robuck, who made a nice return of the ball. Scopelite, on a trick play, gained 14 yards through the center of the line for another first down. Mumford intercepted an Ellwood City pass and ran it 42 yards before being dropped on the Ellwood City 19-yard line just as the first period ended.

New Castle Halted
New Castle opened up the second period with a passing attack, but failed to complete two passes, and on the next pass by DeCaprio an Ellwood City man grabbed it on the 9-yard line. Ellwood immediately kicked out of danger. New Castle tried 20 yards on attempted pass. Mumford clicked off a nice run of 20 yards for a first down on the Ellwood 35-yard line. Alex Shellogg ripped through for 10 yards and another first down on the Ellwood City 25-yard line. New Castle tried two more passes and then gave up the ball on the 20-yard line. Bognosky kicked out to Mumford in the middle of the field and New Castle began another march down the field, with Fleming and Mumford ripping off short gains. New Castle made a first down on the 22-yard line and then opened up with a passing attack that failed to work. Ellwood City took the ball on their own 35-yard line as the first half ended.

Fleming Scores
New Castle kicked off to Ellwood City at the start of the third period, and Ellwood City after a few plays at the line kicked to New Castle, with Mumford taking the ball in the middle of the field. New Castle opened up with the first real threat of the game and started to click off yardage, with Fleming and Alex Shellogg doing quite a bit of fancy running through the line and around the ends.

Fleming took the ball on a double pass on the Ellwood City 21-yard line and started through left tackle, but found his way blocked by considerable beef and cut back to the left and raced around end for the remaining distance to the goal line on one of the prettiest plays of the entire game, and one of the few times that New Castle looked like the New Castle team of old. Alex Shellogg kicked the extra point right through the center of the goal posts. Thus ended the scoring for the evening.

At the end of the third period Ellwood City had the ball on their own 30-yard line.

Play About Even
The fourth and final period saw Ellwood City trying desperately to a score by using their famed aerial attack, but they could not get "hits when hits meant runs" in the parlance of baseball. Robuck flipped a nice pass to Jeannette for a short gain, but outside of that one play New Castle broke up the passing attack of the Ellwoodians. Scopelite opened up with some nice running of the ball in the final period and clicked off a first down, but Ellwood City soon gave up the ball after three unsuccessful passes.

New Castle and Ellwood City exchanged punts and neither team gained much ground. Another Ellwood City pass, Young to Robuck, was good for a gain. Ellwood City drew a 15-yard penalty. Bognosky kicked to Mumford, who made a return of about 25 yards for his longest runback of a punt during the entire game. Mumford uncorked a kick to Ellwood City on the Ellwood 21-yard line as the game ended.

Ellwood Fine Team
Ellwood City can be very happy over the showing made by their scrappy little team last night against the New Castle "Red Hurricane". New Castle last year upset Ellwood City by a big score, and for the Benedictmen to come here and battle the New Castle team on even ground is an achievement that cannot go unrecognized. Ellwood City presented a fine passing system, with Robuck, Young and Jeannette the star performers. Scopelite was the best for Ellwood City in the running attack.

On the line for Ellwood City the work of Markus, Kraynack and Steckman stood out brilliantly.

New Castle's best bet was Fleming, Alex Shellogg, Crisci and F. Shellogg.

Captain Walter Raskowski was out of the game last night and his services were greatly missed by New Castle.

His Charlier next Friday night at Taggart field for New Castle.

New Castle And Ellwood City Bands Combine And Play Lively Tunes For Fans

Football fans at the New Castle-Ellwood City game last night were entertained with some lively tunes by a combined group of New Castle and Ellwood City high band members of about 100 pieces.

It was a real spectacle to see the two rival bands join in the middle of the field and march eight or ten abreast across the field. The Ellwood City band formed the initials "N. C. for the New Castle fans. The New Castle band formed E. C. H. S. for Ellwood City.

The fourth and final period saw Ellwood City trying desperately to a

Evans City High Scores Four Touchdowns In Game At Union High Field

UNION IS WEAK IN SECOND PERIOD

Evans City High School football team defeated Union High School football team 28 to 0 Friday afternoon in the opening game of the 1934 season on the new athletic field at Union High. The visitors scored four touchdowns, made two points after touchdowns and registered a safety score their points.

The first downs in the game were even at four apiece. Evans City made all of their first downs in the first half, and Union rang up three first downs in the second half. Union flipped eleven passes and made good on three of them for gains. Evans City tried two passes and did not complete any.

Visitors Score Safety
Evans City hung up two points on a safety in the first period when Union was driven back to their own 15 yard line on an exchange of punts and held Evans City on the eight yard line, a bad pass from center went over Thompson's head and rolled over the goal line.

The first period ended 2 to 0 in favor of the Gregory coached team. In the second period Union fell to pieces and allowed the visitors to hang up three touchdowns for 19 points making the score 21 to 0 at the half. Kaufman registered the first touchdown for Evans City on a dash for 24 yards through the line. Kaufman also scooted for the second touchdown after the kickoff by going through from the 5 yard line, after a series of plays had placed Evans City in scoring position.

Thomas Scores On Pass

Thomas of Evans City made the third touchdown in the period when he intercepted a pass from Huling and raced through the Union team for 35 yards. Cashdollar made the extra-point by a plunge. The first half ended 21 to 0 with Evans City leading.

The third period found Union High looking better and ringing up three first downs in a row, but the Unionites could not get within the 10-yard line at any time, and would lose the ball when in scoring position. The third period ended 21-0.

Kinsey Tallies

In the fourth and final period Kinsey of Evans City the star center grabbed a pass on the 40-yard line and raced through the Union team for the fourth and final touchdown. The extra point was plunged over by McIntyre. The game ended 28 to 0 with Union making every effort to score via the aerial route, but could not complete any vital passes.

Watson, Kaufman, Kinsey, and McIntyre featured for the Evans City High team. Thompson and Schaas were the best bets in the Union lineup. A crowd of perhaps 500 witnessed the game.

Enzo Firemonte Is Knocked Out

(International News Service)
HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22.—Enzo Firemonte, the Italian boy with the statuesque figure, who calmly tossed aside a real, soft spot as the husband of one of America's wealthiest women, Mrs. Madeline Force Astor Dick, to return to the prize ring, today probably was wondering whether it all hadn't been a mistake.

A prize-fighter before he married the widow of John Jacob Astor, Firemonte after 19 months absence from the arena went down in the fourth round of his scheduled ten-round encounter with Les Kennedy, an old, tired and battered veteran of the ring, and was counted out.

Duquesne Hands Waynesburg Upset By Score Of 39-0

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Celebrating their smashing defeat over Waynesburg, 39-0, a grinning, horse-playing gang of Duquesne footballers gathered in their dressing rooms for a bathing suit talk today.

A howling crowd last night watched Ed Zaneski grab the Yellow Jack's opening kickoff and then spin 91 yards to a touchdown and victory.

Waynesburg never recovered from that shock, the hiltoppers craned through three more times the first half as Fillingham, Airhart and Strutt toted the ball.

With Coach Joe Bach's second string in the third quarter, Duquesne was held scoreless. In the fourth Airhart and Vairo completed the rout.

THE SPORT PATROL

By JOHN J. MAHER, JR.

STANFORD
For the first time in years the Pacific Coast is doing its pre-season warbling about a team other than Southern California. The western fans expect Stanford to capture the Pacific Coast crown and then grab the national title in the Tournament of Roses game. Such names as Minnesota, Pitt, Princeton, and Michigan mean very little to a loyal Pacific fan when he begins football chort practice.

Stanford visualizes a backfield quartet which will emulate the famed Four Horsemen. In Frank Alustiza at quarter; Bones Hamilton and Buck Van Dellen, halfbacks; and Bobby Grayson, fullback, the Palo Alto school has a foursome which, as a combination, may achieve more distinction than any group since the 1924 Notre Dame backs.

Thornhill's backfield can do everything. Alustiza takes care of the kicking and passing. Hamilton is a rugged blocker. Grayson runs the plays off tackle and takes care of the line smashing, and Van Dellen fits in as an all-around threat for the trio.

While the backfield returns intact, the line has three replacements to make. Bill Corbus and Bob O'Connor, guards, and Al Norgard, right end, were graduated last June but the other four linemen will be with us again.

The guards, especially Corbus, will be missed but Stanford is losing no sleep over this problem. Woody Adams and Larry Rouble are expected to fit into a championship combination satisfactorily.

Wes Muller, the 230 pounder is, perhaps, the best on the coast. While Wes is present the Cards have no worries about the snapper back post.

Al Norgard's end position will be filled by either Keith Topping or Ben Palamontain. Several others are also fighting for the berth but it will probably go to either of these two with Topping having the edge.

Monk Moscrip has the left end berth sewed up. Moscrip was one of the best ends in the country last year and with a year of experience under his belt, he should be even better this season.

The tackle posts are set with Bob Reynolds and Claude Callaway on the job again. Reports from the west, say that Reynolds has developed into somewhat of a Carnera having boosted his weight to the neighborhood of 250 pounds. Unless he can shed a few pounds he may be slowed up to such an extent that someone will have to replace him.

The games with Northwestern and Southern California are the highlights on the Stanford schedule which includes eight other games. The Cards stand a very good chance of having an undefeated season with their entire schedule being played

P. Dean Hurls No-Hit Contest

Paul Dean Fails To Allow Brooklyn Hit Or Run In Game At St. Louis

DEAN BROTHERS REGISTER 45TH

By GENE LAWRENCE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—What had seemed the idle boast of a chesty youngster to the rest of the National league this spring had become a real fact today when the Dean brothers registered their 45th pitching victory of the season for the St. Louis Cardinals.

"Dizzy" registered his 27th triumph blanking the Brooklyn Dodgers 13 to 0 in the first game of a doubleheader, but that effort was lost in the brilliance of brother Paul's no run, no hit triumph in the night-cap, 3 to 0.

Paul reached the greatest heights of baseball at the expense of the Dodgers, hurling a near perfect game. He walked but one man and no Dodger reached second base. This followed after "Dizzy" had held the Dodgers hitless and scoreless for the first seven innings of the opener but relaxed in the eighth allowing one hit, which was followed by two more in the ninth.

Cardinals Gain
Again, the double triumph enabled the Cards to cut another half game into the lead of the New York Giants, whose National league margin now stands at three full games. Each team has seven games to play.

The Giants finally buckled down to timely hitting and managed to win a game for Freddy Fitzsimmons. They beat the Braves, 8-1.

The Pittsburgh Pirates swept both games of a doubleheader from the lowly Cincinnati Reds. Wallopings Freitas, Kolp, Barnes and Richmond for 17 hits the Pirates won the opener, 9 to 3. In the nightcap they poked out 20 hits, to win 16-3.

Rain washed out the Tigers game with the Browns at St. Louis and probably temporarily halted the march of the Detroit club toward the American league pennant. No other games were scheduled.

How Roxie Long Secured Checks On Wampum Bank

Gave Employee $24 And $200 Check To Deposit Under Name "Samuel Hoffman"

CHECK IS WORTHLESS, $23 CASH WITHDRAWN

As defendant trying his own case, Roxie Long drew a fair sized audience to Judge Hildebrand's court room Friday afternoon. Impressions were mixed. The audience was pleased with Roxie's acting; attorneys were critical of his technique; the court was patient with his many interruptions, while the jury sat stolidly giving no indication of how the trial was affecting them.

Roxie bent his energies on trying to show that there had been no conspiracy in connection with the defrauding of a half a dozen or more wholesale merchants. The men and boys who were with him were called to the stand by the commonwealth and told their stories. Jake Exler, one of the men who has already entered a plea, testified that he had been employed by Roxie to go after merchandise at College Hill, Beaver, and at Mahoningtown.

Threats Alleged
Roxie broke in: "Did you not make a statement in police station at Pittsburgh that you only made one trip?"

"Yes," replied the witness "but that was because you told me that I was not going to live if I told any more."

Roxie was a little disconcerted by this unexpected reply but he kept his nerve. He started in to question the witness about various transactions, which seemed to have no bearing on the case.

Judge Hildebrand told Roxie to confine himself to the case and not wander all over Allegheny county. Witness then told about making two trips to Mahoningtown for goods. Abraham Coury, who has also entered a plea, was along and helped him load the goods.

Exler said that Roxie was at the back door of the store when he made the second trip, but did not assist in loading the goods.

District Attorney Alley made an objection. Roxie wanted the court to instruct Alley to keep quiet. Roxie was told Alley had the right to object whenever he wanted to.

Bank Account Opened
Anthony Adisey, who has also entered a plea in the case, told about the banking transactions. He said that Roxie gave him $24 to put in the Wampum bank, and told him to have it placed in the name of Samuel Hoffman. Adisey signed the signature identification slip in the bank that way, and when he came out he said Roxie directed him to sign eight checks, "Samuel Hoffman." Witness did so and Roxie took the checks. There was also a check for $200 on a Rochester bank deposited in the Wampum bank.

There was some dispute as to whether this was when the $24 was put in, or the next day. The deposit is supposed to have been made on June 12th or 13th. On June 14th, at direction of Roxie, the witness withdrew $23 in cash from the bank and gave the money to Roxie, which only left $1 in the Wampum bank and the $200 check, which was afterwards found to be worthless.

Gave More Orders
Witness said that on the way to New Castle on June 12, Roxie had stopped at a restaurant in Beaver Falls, where he had called about 25 wholesale houses in different places, giving orders to have goods delivered at once to the Mahoningtown store.

Louis Goldberg, a wholesale produce merchant of Youngstown, O., told about getting an order for about $92 worth. He sent the goods with a driver instructing him to get the cash, but Abraham Coury, who was at the store, talked him into accepting a check, which Goldberg found to be worthless. Goldberg identified some boxes which had been found in Roxie's store at Pittsburgh. They had contained fruit. Goldberg was able to identify them because they were stamped with his name.

Mike Kuncha, driver of the Goldberg, told about being talked into accepting the check.

Peter J. O'Donnell of Pittsburgh gave a description of the store run by Roxie and his wife in Pittsburgh. He helped the New Castle officers to get the stolen goods at the store.

O'Donnell testified that he had been watching Roxie's store for some time. He seemed to know plenty about Roxie and his methods, as it was not the first time he had been mixed up with him. Roxie tried to confuse the witness on a number of transactions but could not make any headway. Court adjourned until Saturday morning.

East Side Choral Society To Resume
After a summer's vacation, the East Side Choral society will resume rehearsals Monday evening, September 24, in the Third U. P. church, Director Charles G. Harris announced today. Plans are under way for the presentation of the "Messiah" during the Christmas season. All singers interested in choral singing are invited to associate themselves with the society.

Feuchtwanger Heads Division In Chest Drive

Will Be Chairman Of Government Employees' Division In Coming Campaign

NAMES AIDES OF DEPARTMENTS

MARCUS FEUCHTWANGER

"Marcus Feuchtwanger, chairman of the NRA and president of the Margaret L. Henry children's home, has accepted the leadership of the government employees' division in the oncoming Community Chest campaign," announced Walter W. Braham, general chairman of this year's campaign organization. "Mr. Feuchtwanger," continued General Braham, "has announced that he will be the chairman of the various departments of the city, county, state and federal officials, as follows: Councilman Albert A. Hoyland, chairman of the city employees; County Treasurer William O. Pitts, chairman of the county courthouse group; Postmaster Richard Steen, chairman of the federal postoffice employees; Dr. C. C. Green and Miss Sara Sankey McCune, co-chairmen of the city school division."

"With this challenging array of outstanding leadership," said General Chairman Braham, "there is no doubt in the minds of the campaign leaders that these separate, yet co-operating divisions will over-exceed last year's support to the chest in this campaign."

To Complete Plans.
Chairman Marcus Feuchtwanger of the government employee division said "within the next few days his departmental chairmen would have their organization complete for their respective internal solicitation." Chairman Feuchtwanger in commenting on the leadership that is being rallied to this 11th annual Community Chest appeal said "this year's campaign is receiving more whole-hearted cooperation than any of the past efforts I have been connected with. It will be the aim of all my departmental chairmen to secure 100 per cent chest support from all employees. Everyone who has a job this year in the midst of so much economic unrest were indeed thankful that they are working and will show their appreciation through increased giving which must be secured to fully finance the chest this year."

"In my long association with all the eight affiliated agencies in the New Castle Community Chest, I have the utmost respect," said Chairman Feuchtwanger, "and appreciation of the sacrifice and whole-hearted devotion of each agency executive in making toward the fight to maintain and improve our social standards."

Interested In Children.
"Every agency in the chest fills a distinctive need in the community and in spite of the handicap of small budgets are contributing toward recovery in a way that seems impossible. Being president of the Margaret L. Henry children's home, I am especially interested in the work that they are doing for the orphans and part orphans of the city. No organization in the country is doing more with the money available than the home. Forty-eight children during the past year have been mothered and their health safeguarded by periodic examinations of competent physicians," continued Chairman Feuchtwanger.

"The statement put out by the campaign committee," he continued, "that 'the children are depression's real victims' is a truth so poignant that regardless of the status of the individual, increased giving should therefore be coming to this chest appeal."

"If New Castle citizens neglect our needy children now they will reap a whirlwind in the next generation. We dare not fail them, and I know we will not fail them," he concluded.

AROUND CITY HALL
Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. September 21, thirteen arrests on charges as follows: speeding, 3, drunkenness 2, violation of traffic rules 4 and violation of parking law 4.

Judging from the fines that are being levied for speeding and violation of traffic regulations and parking too long in one place the police department will probably turn in a much larger sum than was sent to general revenue for the month of August when the amount was $357.00. More than the result of last Saturday's activities. Since that time a campaign to enforce auto laws here has been under way.

Request has been made to Chief Haven that some kind of a warning sign be erected at the intersection of North Mercer street and Hazlewood avenue. Another place that worries motorists traveling through North Mercer street is the corner of Elmwood boulevard. The high bushes hide motorists driving west from Albert street toward North Mercer street.

It was expected that when the Kentucky rock was placed in North Mercer street between Sheridan and Euclid avenues that it would be too heavy to scatter. However, traffic has scattered the rock to both sides of the road.

One week ago today approximately a dozen boys fought the mayor as the result of throwing tomatoes and indications are that many more will also face His Honor if they do not stop throwing them. Reports of this kind have come from East Fairmont avenue and the Seventh ward.

HOME TALENT SCORES IN SHOW

Two Night Performance At New Wilmington Is Triumph—Other News Notes

(Special To The News.)
NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—With a tremendous ovation accorded them on the fall of the last curtain at the Community House, a cast of over 100 local Thespians felt that "The World's All Right," the title of the mammoth musical comedy which was presented on Thursday and Friday nights from the Community House stage.

With very responsive and packed houses each night, the local artists were at their best, and performed in a style that impressed the entire assemblage.

The scene for "The World's All Right" was laid in a broadcasting station, call letters W-A-R, signifying "World's All Right," and dealt with the various intricacies and pitfalls of running a radio station. William White as Jimmy Waddell, owner of the station, is admirably entranced from certain bankruptcy by Esther Davis as Jane Rogers, and William Morgan as Lovin' Sam.

Various musical scores were introduced over the "mike," operettas were sung, "hill-billies" roared out their welcomes, vested choirs did some beautiful numbers, the tiny tots paraded the stage and several chorus numbers featured the program.

Included in the main cast were White, Esther Davis, William Morgan, Prof. H. L. Black, Dr. R. F. Wilson. Special leads included "Peg" Robinson, Miss Elizabeth Rose, Thomas Rogers and Thomas Mansell.

The "Lovin' Sam" number, featuring Morgan and Robinson, threatened to bring down the house, as the two blackfaced cavorted over the stage in a natural glee rhythm. Encore after encore greeted their number.

After the play last night the cast of the production was feted at a dinner dance.

Proceeds of the play, unannounced as yet, will be used to further the work of the local Welfare association. All due credit is extended to A. W. Thompson and J. J. Francis, whose efforts made the play the success it was.

Miss Ruth Sewall, prominent member of the senior class of New Wilmington high school, was accompanist for the production.

ENTERTAINS CLASS
Mrs. Harry Green of the upper New Castle-New Wilmington road was a charming hostess to the members of the Young Ladies Bible class of the Methodist church who gathered at her home on Friday night for the regular monthly meeting.

A short business program was conducted after which the hostess served a delightful luncheon to the assembled guests.

AT SEMINARY
New Wilmington is proud to boast of its representation at the Pittsburgh Xenia Theological seminary, a training school for future preachers of the United Presbyterian denomination. Five local young men have enrolled at the school this week. They include Wm. McKim, seniors; Matthew Gilliland, Willis McGill and Calvin Rose, members of the middle class.

THURSDAY CLUB
Acting as hostess for the first meeting of the Thursday club for the coming year, Mrs. Edward Freeman of S. Market street will fetter the members of that organization at her home on Thursday, September 27. The affair will be in the form of a tureen luncheon.

TO OCCUPY PULPIT
Rev. Milo M. Mook, newly appointed pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal congregation, will occupy his new pulpit on Sunday morning at the regular services of the church.

Rev. Mook is a graduate of Allegheny college and Garrett Biblical institute, and has been in the conference ministry for 12 years.

Rev. E. O. McNulty, pastor of the church for the past three years, will fill his new charge at the Mt. Zion Methodist church, DuBois, Pa., tomorrow.

GRANGE TO MEET
Wilmington grange will meet at the Shenango Presbyterian church on the New Castle road Thursday evening, September 27.

PLAYS
William Hamilton, in charge of high school dramatic production, announced today that a three-act farce entitled "It Won't Be Long Now," will be produced by dramatic stars of the school, near the middle of October. The cast is not chosen as yet, but plans are in formulation and tryouts will be held soon.

Miss Elizabeth Rose, instructress of music at the local school, also announced that a three-act musical comedy entitled "Pickles" will be presented following the showing of the aforementioned play.

NEW WILMINGTON NOTES
Mr. and Mrs. Reed Veazey of Cleveland, O., were recent visitors in town.

Mrs. Mary H. Boyd will return Monday from a few days' stay in Pittsburgh.

Dr. J. R. Neal and Dr. R. F. Galbreath have returned from the Synod meeting held this week in Pittsburgh.

R. C. McCaslin, Jr., Lawrence county controller, returned last evening from the controllers' convention which was held this week at York, Pa.

RED CROSS BOARD MEETS NEXT WEEK
Chairman Julius Blaha, of the executive committee of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, has called a special meeting of the executive committee for Friday afternoon, September 28, at 4:30. Business of special importance will be transacted at this meeting.

He and his family have resided here for sometime, and have acquired a wealth of friends. He has spent five years with Croton M. E. church and prior to that, was pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist church for many years. One of his talented daughters was born on Reynolds street, South Side and his wife, the Rev. With them goes the best wishes, good will and prayers from the Welsh people of New Castle.

A letter was received from Mrs. John Evans, of Cleveland, O., stating the profound success of the Singing Festival held there September 2. Under the direction of T. Hopkins Evans of Liverpool, England, it was outstanding in every way. Many were present from New Castle.

Don't feel discouraged about enlarged pores, use my PORE CREAM!

"Do you think that Pore cream will actually correct this condition?" a skeptical client asked Miss Arden.

"I know it will!" Miss Arden assured her. At night, after cleansing and toning your skin, spread a little Pore Cream over the areas that have enlarged pores. In a short time, the pores will contract to their normal size, and your skin will be finely-textured and lovely.
